Schedule I, Line 1	The Institute offers scholarships to students matriculating at the Institute. These scholarships are offered as direct reductions to tuition costs and no funds are remitted to the students. Since the student may not exercise any personal discretion as to how the funds are applied, the Institute is not required to monitor the use of the funds. Research fellows are chosen based on the qualifications in the area of research determined by the Director of the Center for Culture and Security. Grants are awarded based on grant budgets and funding availability. Once grants are awarded, funds are spent at the fellows discretion. Periodic updates are required as determined by the grant agreement that stipulate outcomes and deliverables. Academic fellows and students requesting scholarships apply to IWP, and are awarded fellowships and scholarships by the Financial Aid Committee.

process for determining compensation	PART VI, LINE 15 The board of trustees determines the president's compensation, usually in executive session at one of the regular Spring or Fall board meetings. At these meetings, the trustees review and discuss the president's performance and annual compensation. A formal process was put in place establishing an employment agreement. The salary shall be reviewed every two years and adjusted as determined by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Trustees. This process has not been an annual process, but the Institute is looking to implement a formal process that is consistent and documented in the appropriate Board minutes. The Employment Agreement shall expire on July 31, 2023. Within the context of an approved budget, The president reviews and approves the compensation of the Vice President of Finance and Administration, the Vice President of Institutional Advancement, and the Dean of Academic Affairs.
