B. Each Trustee, other than a Trustee who serves in an ex officio capacity, shall hold office for a term of three years and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation, or removal from office or death in office. Trustees may be elected for consecutive terms, but no Trustee may be reelected if he or she has served continuously for six years, however, may be considered for reelection to the Board of Trustees of The Foundation after a one year absence.

C. Trustees, other than a Trustee who serves in an ex officio capacity, shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the National Rifle Association of America ("NRA") at the first meeting of the NRA Board of Directors immediately following the annual meeting of the NRA members, unless otherwise required to fill a vacant seat prior to that meeting by the NRA Board of Directors. It is intended that, at all times, the composition of the Board of Trustees of The Foundation reflect the broadest possible diversity in terms of professions, skills and interests.

E. Any Trustee, by notice in writing to the Board of Trustees, may resign at any time. A Trustee may be removed from office with or without cause prior to the expiration of his or her term by acting of the remaining Trustees at any regular or special meeting. Vacancies, as they occur, by resignation, removal, death, incapacity or the like of one or more trustees shall be filled, by act of the remaining Trustees, and any successor so elected shall serve for the balance of the term remaining at the time such vacancy occurs.

F. Increases or decreases in the number of Trustees shall be made by an act of the Trustees. At no time, however, shall there be fewer than seven (7) or more than nine (9) Trustees. Appointment of additional Trustees to the Board may be made by the Board at any time to fill a vacancy which occurs by reason of the increase in the number of Trustees by the Board.

Section 2.

B. The Board of Trustees may, in its discretion, charter such local or regional affiliates as deemed necessary to further the charitable aims and purposes of the Foundation. However, no charter awarded or conferred under this section shall be construed to confer upon the chartered organization the power to accept service of process on behalf of the NRA Foundation, Inc., or to initiate or defend any suit in the name of the NRA Foundation, Inc. A clear statement of rights, privileges and responsibilities actually conferred upon the chartered organization shall be included on a suitable written instrument which shall be provided to the chartered organization as evidence of the Board’s action.

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or upon the written request of two (2) Trustees addressed to the Secretary.

Section 5.

Notice of Meetings of the Board of Trustees. Written notice of the date, time and place or each meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be given by the Secretary or the person or persons calling the meeting not more than sixty days nor fewer than three days before the date of such meeting to each Trustee. Subject to the terms of Article VIII, such notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting and may be given by any reasonable means. Notice of any meeting shall be considered given if mailed or otherwise sent or delivered in writing to each Trustee at his or her address specified in the records of The Foundation. The giving of notice shall be deemed to be waived by any Trustee who shall attend and participate in such meeting without protesting, prior to or at the commencement of such meeting, the lack of proper notice and may be waived in writing, by any Trustee either before, at or after such meeting.

B. The Board of Trustees, from time to time, may create one or more other committees and may delegate to any such committee any of its authority, provided, however, that such delegation is consistent with the laws of the District of Columbia. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, shall act only in the intervals between meetings of the Board, shall be subject to the control and direction of the Board and shall report to the Board, as required; provided, however, that any third party shall not be adversely affected by relying upon any act by any such committee within the authority delegated to it. Each such committee shall act by not less than a majority of the authorized number of its members.

Section 7.
Action without a meeting. Any action which might be taken at any meeting of the Trustees (including, without limitation, any action provided for in Article THIRTEEN of the Articles of Incorporation) or at any meeting of a committee may be taken without such meeting by a writing or writings signed by all of the Trustees or all of the members of such committee, as the case may be. The writing or writings evidencing such action shall be filed with the Secretary of The Foundation and inserted in the permanent records relating to the meeting of the Trustees and committees.

Section 8.
Meetings Held Through Communication Equipment. Meetings of the Board of Trustees or any committee of the Board may be held through communications equipment if all persons participating can communicate with each other and such participants shall constitute presence at such meeting.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1.
Election and Term. The officers of The Foundation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Director, and such other officers as the Trustees shall from time to time designate. Other than the Executive Director, the officers shall be elected by the majority of the Board of Trustees and, but for the President, need not be members of the Board at the time of their election. Officers, other than the Executive Director, shall hold office until the close of the next Annual Meeting of the Trustees following the election of such officers and until their successors are elected and qualified. One person may hold more than one office, other than the offices of the President and Secretary. The Executive Director of The NRA Foundation shall serve an indefinite term and shall assume such office by virtue of his or her appointment by the Executive Director of Advancement of the National Rifle Association of America.
Section 2.
